1. Policy. Reserve officers will be eligible for release from active duty after completing their minimum required obligated active service, and any additional required obligated active service incurred by them.

2. Minimum Required Active Service

a. Minimum required active duty service is specified in the directive which describes the program through which the officer obtained a commission or is specified in the service agreement executed by the officer.

b. Reserve officers involuntarily called to active duty will not be eligible for release until completion of the period of active duty for which called.

3. Additional Required Active Service

a. Additional required active duty service is required of officers who participate in certain undergraduate, postgraduate, and special instructional programs; or who voluntarily execute orders which contain a requirement for the officer to extend active duty service.

b. This additional required service will be as specified in the directive which describes the program, as stipulated upon in the officer's application, or by the officer's acceptance of official Navy orders directing the officer to the program.
